

Complaints Policy

Purpose

Therapy Hive values complaints from people with disability, families, carers, service providers and regulators to ensure people are treated fairly when they use our services. Complaints are an important source of information and are used to improve our services wherever possible.

This policy supports Therapy Hive to apply the National Standards for Disability Services, in particular Standard 4: Feedback and Complaints.

Scope

This policy applies to all complaints about Therapy Hive and its services made by or on behalf of customers (including supported employees), their family, carers, advocates and/or members of the general public.

Objectives

- Outline procedures for an expression of dissatisfaction with any aspect of Therapy Hive services.
- To work towards a resolution of a complaint with Therapy Hive
- To ensure legislative requirements are met

Principles

- Everyone has the right to complain.
- People making complaints should be supported to access complaints processes.
- Complaints processes should be sensitive to any cultural requirements.
- Robust complaints processes and systems are an important part of quality service management and help safeguard people with disability.
- Complaints identify risks to people with disability but also visitors and staff, and support Therapy Hive to meet its occupational health and safety obligations.
- Complaints identify opportunities for Therapy Hive to continuously improve its services.

Procedure Detail

While Therapy Hive strives to meet people's expectations, mistakes do happen. Therapy Hive and staff are committed to creating and maintaining a positive complaint management environment that encourages feedback and complaints, so that we can improve our services to our clients.

Therapy Hive endeavors to manage and investigate complaints through to resolution, with a view to:

- Empower customers
- Restore and strengthen relationships with customers
- Maintain and strengthen the reputation and satisfaction with Therapy Hive services
- Use feedback and complaint information to strengthen and improve Therapy Hive services
- Therapy Hive is committed to:
- Provide support to all staff to understand their respective roles and responsibilities in addressing complaint management and resolution

- Reassure a person raising a complaint it is done with confidence at any level of the organisation without fear or retribution
- Provide complainants the appropriate support to raise a complaint
- Keep complainants included and informed throughout the complaints investigation process
- Take appropriate action in relation to the issues raised; and focus on improvement
